Minutes

1. Review of the minutes of the last meeting.
 - 1.1 The minutes were accepted.
2. The consideration of the report: Private Copy Levies - UK Revenue Potential, Frontier Economics, April 2021
 - 2.1 The report was received. Damian Collins MP indicated that there weren't enough Parliamentarians present to agree a position on behalf of the APPG on the report.
3. The future programme of work of the APPG
 - 3.1 Further to the identification of proposed meetings for the year ahead discussed at the last meeting, Damian Collins MP asked if the next meeting could be on the subject of arts education.

- 3.2 The APPG agreed to this proposal and discussed options for topics to discuss and external experts to invite to this meeting.
- 3.3 Topics of interest were how arts education is delivered through schools and colleges and in the community, research on making arts education more valuable, how it is funded, post-16 education, the Skills and Post-16 Education Bill, education for the creative sector and the Office for Students consultation
- 3.4 The Group discussed individuals they would like to invite to speak on these topics at this meeting including John Hegarty, Graham Fink, John Sorrel and Alex Pleasance.
- 3.5 The Secretariat were directed to organise this meeting.
- 4 AOB
- 4.1 The Group agreed to consider any representations from the Secretariat to the government's spending review consultation and any individual requests for further communication such as briefing meetings or public statements.
- 4.2 Damian Collins invited the Group and Secretariat to visit the Folkestone Triennial and said he could arrange this.
